

GOVERNANCE MATURITY MODEL (GMM) v1

Measuring Governance Maturity Across the Five Layers of the Operational Governance Stack

GERALD
ON GOVERNANCE
STANDARD

| LAYER & PURPOSE |                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | MATURITY DOMAINS                                                                                                                                                                              | MATURITY LEVEL DESCRIPTIONS (1-5)                                                     |                                                                                         |                                                                                                             |                                                                                              |                                                                                                  | MATURITY QUESTION                                                        | OUTCOME                                                                                                              |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| LAYER 5         |  GOVERNANCE OVERSIGHT LAYERStrategy, oversight, and assurance at the highest organizational level.                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Governance Strategy</li><li>Governance Objectives</li><li>Governance Reporting</li><li>Board Oversight</li><li>Governance Metrics</li></ul>             | 1AD HOCGovernance is informal and reactive with limited oversight. | 2DEFINEDGovernance approach is defined but not consistently applied. | 3IMPLEMENTEDGovernance is implemented and consistently executed across the organization. | 4MANAGEDGovernance is measured and actively managed to drive performance. | 5OPTIMIZEDGovernance is continuously improved and drives strategic advantage. | Are governance expectations being established and monitored effectively? | Strategic Oversight Maturity  |
| LAYER 4         |  ACCOUNTABILITY LAYEROwnership, authority, and accountability for decisions and outcomes.                              | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Ownership</li><li>Decision Rights</li><li>Authority Structures</li><li>RACI Models</li><li>Escalation Paths</li><li>Accountability Mechanisms</li></ul> | Accountability is unclear with undefined roles and ownership.                         | Roles and responsibilities are defined but not consistently enforced.                   | Accountability structures are implemented and understood organization-wide.                                 | Accountability is measured and actively enforced across all key processes.                   | Accountability is embedded into culture and drives high performance.                             | Who owns governance outcomes, decisions, and failures?                   | Accountability Maturity       |
| LAYER 3         |  CONTROL LAYERPolicies, guardrails, and controls that translate governance expectations into enforceable mechanisms. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Policies</li><li>Operational Controls</li><li>Guardrails</li><li>Access Controls</li><li>Data Governance</li><li>Model Governance</li></ul>             | Controls are minimal, ad hoc, or non-existent.                                        | Controls are defined but inconsistently applied.                                        | Controls are implemented and provide reasonable assurance.                                                  | Controls are tested, measured, and effective across the organization.                        | Controls are optimized, automated, and continuously improved.                                    | How are governance expectations translated into operational controls?    | Control Maturity            |
| LAYER 2         |  RUNTIME GOVERNANCE LAYERMonitoring, intervention, and governance during real-time system operation.                 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Monitoring</li><li>Enforcement</li><li>Human Intervention</li><li>Escalation</li><li>Incident Response</li><li>Containment &amp; Recovery</li></ul>     | No runtime monitoring or intervention capability.                                     | Basic monitoring exists but limited escalation or intervention.                         | Runtime governance is implemented with defined escalation and response.                                     | Runtime governance is proactive and drives operational resilience.                           | Runtime governance is autonomous, adaptive, and continuously optimized.                          | Does governance operate when systems are actively running?               | Runtime Governance Maturity |
| LAYER 1         |  EVIDENCE LAYERLogging, audit trails, and evidence to demonstrate and prove governance activities.                   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Logging</li><li>Audit Trails</li><li>Traceability</li><li>Reporting</li><li>Metrics</li><li>Record Retention</li></ul>                                  | Evidence is minimal, manual, or not retained.                                         | Evidence is captured in silos with limited traceability.                                | Evidence is structured, accessible, and supports reporting.                                                 | Evidence is measured, verified, and used for continuous improvement.                         | Evidence is end-to-end, immutable, and provides full assurance and defensibility.                | Can governance outcomes be demonstrated through evidence?                | Evidence Maturity           |

| GOVERNANCE MATURITY SCALE (1-5)                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                         |                                                                                         | MATURITY SCORING MODEL (EXAMPLE) |             |                                                                                       |         |                | GOVERNANCE MATURITY HEAT MAP |                |                                                                                       |             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|----------------|------------------------------|----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| 1AD HOCGovernance is informal, inconsistent, and dependent on individual effort. | 2DEFINEDGovernance is defined but not consistently applied.      | 3IMPLEMENTEDGovernance is implemented and consistently executed. | 4MANAGEDGovernance is measured and actively managed for performance. | 5OPTIMIZEDGovernance is continuously improved and drives excellence. | LAYER                            | SCORE (1-5) | MATURITY                                                                              | WEIGHT  | WEIGHTED SCORE | LAYER                        | MATURITY LEVEL |                                                                                       | RATING      |
|                   |  |  |      |      | 5 Governance Oversight           | 4.2         |  | 20%     | 0.84           | 5 Governance Oversight       | 4              |  | Managed     |
|                                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                         |                                                                                         | 4 Accountability                 | 3.6         |  | 20%     | 0.72           | 4 Accountability             | 3              |  | Implemented |
|                                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                         |                                                                                         | 3 Control                        | 4.0         |  | 20%     | 0.80           | 3 Control                    | 4              |  | Managed     |
|                                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                         |                                                                                         | 2 Runtime Governance             | 2.1         |  | 20%     | 0.42           | 2 Runtime Governance         | 2              |  | Defined     |
|                                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                         |                                                                                         | 1 Evidence                       | 4.3         |  | 20%     | 0.86           | 1 Evidence                   | 4              |  | Managed     |
|                                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                         |                                                                                         | OVERALL MATURITY SCORE           |             | 3.64                                                                                  | MANAGED |                |                              |                |                                                                                       |             |

| MATURITY PROGRESSION CHARACTERISTICS                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                              | MATURITY BENEFITS BY LEVEL                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                             |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1AD HOC<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Reactive</li><li>Inconsistent</li><li>Manual</li><li>Siloed</li><li>Unpredictable</li></ul> | 2DEFINED<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Basic structure</li><li>Documented</li><li>Limited adoption</li><li>Some consistency</li><li>Early governance</li></ul> | 3IMPLEMENTED<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Standardized</li><li>Consistent</li><li>Repeatable</li><li>Organization-wide</li><li>Effective</li></ul> | 4MANAGED<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Measured</li><li>Proactive</li><li>Integrated</li><li>Performance-driven</li><li>Optimized</li></ul> | 5OPTIMIZED<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Adaptive</li><li>Predictive</li><li>Autonomous</li><li>Continuously improving</li><li>Best-in-class</li></ul> | 1AD HOCHigh risk, low visibility, unpredictable outcomes. | 2DEFINEDBasic governance structure with limited effectiveness. | 3IMPLEMENTEDEffective governance with consistent execution and control. | 4MANAGEDMeasurable performance and continuous improvement. | 5OPTIMIZEDGovernance as a strategic advantage and value multiplier. |

| FRAMEWORK OUTPUTS                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
|  MATURITY ASSESSMENT REPORTComprehensive assessment of governance maturity across five layers. |  MATURITY HEAT MAPVisual representation of maturity strengths and weaknesses. |  MATURITY GAP INSIGHTSIdentification of maturity gaps and focus areas for improvement. |  IMPROVEMENT ROADMAP INPUTFoundation for prioritized improvement planning and investment. |  EXECUTIVE MATURITY SUMMARYBoard and leadership summary of governance maturity and trends. |  |

GERALD ON GOVERNANCE
PRINCIPLE

Governance maturity is not determined by the existence of policies, committees, or documentation. Governance maturity is determined by the organization's ability to establish oversight, assign accountability, enforce controls, govern at runtime, and produce evidence that governance actually occurred and outcomes were achieved.

Gerald.

GERALD ON GOVERNANCE

Turning AI Governance Principles into Operational Reality.

GOVERNANCE THAT OPERATES.
TRUST THAT SCALES.